
Neste's Stakeholder Advisory Panel

Neste's Board of Directors has invited representatives of the company's stakeholders to join a Stakeholder Advisory Panel that has been established to promote discussion between Neste and its stakeholders on subjects such as the company's operations, business development, and changes in its operating environment.

The following members has been appointed as members of the Stakeholder Advisory Panel as per April 2018:

- Anne Kalmari (Chair), Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Timo Harakka (Vice Chair), Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Pekka Haavisto, Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Teuvo Hakkarainen, Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Harri Jaskari, Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Mauri Pekkarinen, Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Veera Ruoho, Member of the Finnish Parliament
- Matti Torvinen, Member of the Finnish Parliament

In addition, three employees proposed by Neste's personnel will take part in the Panel's work, as previously. The Panel's term of office is one year and it will meet twice a year. They will, however, receive payment for attending meetings, which has been set at EUR 1,500 for the Chair and EUR 1,000 for members. Members will also be reimbursed their travelling costs in accordance with Neste's travel policy.
